

Home Task- WC 21.9.20

Your child has been given their username and password for Spelling Shed. This is an interactive game which allows pupils to practise their current spellings.

Children will not be having spelling tests until they are more settled. However, this week I would like you to use this time to become familiar with the website and the different levels.