

Read these words!

something

looking coming

thing

Now spell them!

Homophones

These are words that sound the same but have different spellings and meanings.

there

This word explains a place or position.

She told us to sit over
there.

their

This word explains belonging to a person or thing.

That was their glue stick.

Their dog was barking loud all night.

I went _____ last night.

_____ dog was poorly.

I like _____ new car.

Are _____ any biscuits
left?

Can you think of a sentence
for there and a sentence for their?