

What do you know about the
ed suffix?

When you have a verb or root word that ends in y and it makes an igh sound, we have to add ied.

try → tried

supply → supplied

pry →

pried

fry →

fried

cry →

cried

dry →

dried

apply →

applied

- Can you find this spelling rule in action in these sentences?

As I fried my egg I burned my finger
so I cried.

I copied my granddad as he hugged everyone.

We were worried as the plane stopped
in front of the people.

The fish flipped and flopped as they were about to be fried!