

Read each card, freeze-frame it and talk about each one.

Jesus walked along the banks of the Sea of Galilee. He saw two fishermen standing on the shore. He said to Simon and Andrew, "Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Jesus walked along the shoreline with Simon and Andrew. They saw a small fishing boat with two brothers and their father in. The men were getting their nets ready for a day of fishing.

Matthew was a tax collector and some people thought tax collectors were cheats, but Jesus knew Matthew was a good man.

Simon and Thaddeus followed Jesus.

Write some thought bubbles to describe how the disciples might have been feeling when Jesus asked them to follow him.

