

Homework week commencing 20th May 2024

Well done on your reported and direct speech work; I was very impressed! House points will follow!

For the next two weeks, I have set a Maths activity on Time, which is an area of Maths we have just been through. Time is an essential part of everyday life, so it is important for you to have a good grasp of this learning.

As it is half-term, you will have an additional week to complete your work.

Finally, I do wish you all a fantastic half-term break; hopefully with lots of sunshine and lovely weather.

All the best!

Kind regards,

Mrs Padam
