Can I identify the importance of Holy Week?

MAKING SENSE OF THE TEXT

Christians celebrate many events during Holy week. Can you name any of them? Write them down in your green/RE book. Think about the Christian calendar to help you.

Activity 1
Look at these crosses. There is a crucifix, a palm cross and a plain cross. Which cross links to which aspect of Holy Week?

The Palm cross links to Palm Sunday.

The Crucifix
links to Good Friday.

The Plain cross links to Easter Sunday.

Why do you think the crosses are given these names?

Activity 2

Watch the following clips which shows the day Jesus enters Jerusalem known as Palm Sunday, the day Jesus died also known as Good Friday and the day Jesus came back to life which is known as Easter Sunday.

Matthew 21:7-11

Task

Write a diary entry pretending to be Mary. You should write a paragraph about Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

You can write these in your green book. Each paragraph should have a drawing of the appropriate cross. You need to include what happened that day, how she felt and what each day meant.

Example diary entry

Listen to Mary's diary entry to help you.

Mary's Diary by Rachel Boxer

Dear Diary I'm not sure how to write about what I've just witnessed. The horror of it all is still too real. Yet somehow, I don't want to accept that it happened. But these details need to be remembered.

We'd been with him from the beginning, and now it looks as if it's the end...of everything.

Last week⁺, the streets of Jerusalem were ringing with shouts of praise to Jesus the King. But as we walked those same streets today, instead of praise people hurled abuse at him.

Jesus was weak from being cruelly beaten and could hardly put one foot in front of another. We longed to run to his aid, to shout back at the crowd that they were wrong - that this man they were about to crucify WAS the special person they'd been watching and waiting⁺ for.
