Whilst the children were exploring the house, they came upon a room which contained nothing but an old, fancy wardrobe.

When the others left, Lucy decided to open it. Inside, she found rows of soft fur coats hanging side by side. Gently, she brushed them with her fingers before climbing in amongst them. The smell was wonderful! It was very dark inside the wardrobe but Lucy felt curious so she began to creep further in using her hands to guide her.

Before she knew it, branches were brushing her face and she was standing on cold snow!
