

Homework week commencing 12th October 2020

This week, I would like you to continue to login to Purple Mash and go to your '2Dos' tab where you will find your homework reading task. The tasks have been set for two weeks, as you might want to complete some of them during the half-term break.

We are still reading Around the World in 80 Minutes, chapter 3 and 4. Each chapter has a writing task for you to complete on Purple Mash. I will be able to see and check your work, so look out for a comment!

As always, if you are finding the text difficult, please ask for help from someone at home.

The homework expires online on Monday 26th October.

Enjoy your reading and have a wonderful half-term!

Mrs Padam
